

Have you ever...

- questioned how time was used at a board meeting?
- thought directors were too involved in minor details?
- worried the board might miss something important?
- wondered why the same conversations keep coming up?
- felt that the board was rubber-stamping staff decisions?
- wanted more results, less politics?
- wished for a more efficient way to make a difference?

Good Governance 101:

Key Principles That Will Liberate, Motivate, and Generate Results

Friday, March 23, 2012 (Ottawa)

You will learn how to:

- save valuable board meeting time while getting more done
- liberate chief executive and staff to create, innovate, achieve results
- improve board - CEO relationship
- prevent board member frustration and burnout
- control effectively without micromanaging
- please your members, community, owners or shareholders

Workshop Info:

- 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. on Friday, March 23, 2012
- $250 per person + tax, or $200 + tax group rate (3+)
- continental breakfast, lunch included
- Location to be announced
- one hour of post-workshop governance consultation time provided free per registration
- presented by Susan Mogensen, Brown Dog Consulting

Space is Limited - Register by March 2

Call 1-877-847-4552 (toll-free)

or (613) 833-3644

or send an e-mail to

susan@browndogconsulting.com

